

Helping Government Serve the People.®

MAXIMUS Executive Biographies

Richard A. Montoni

Chief Executive Officer, President and Director

Richard A. Montoni assumed the position of Chief Executive Officer, President and Director in April 2006 and previously served as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for MAXIMUS. Prior to MAXIMUS, Mr. Montoni held a variety of management positions including Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President for Managed Storage International, Inc. and Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President for CIBER, Inc., a NYSE-listed company in Englewood, Colo. where he also served as a director until March 2002. Before joining CIBER, he was an audit partner with KPMG, LLP, where he worked for nearly 20 years. Mr. Montoni holds a master's degree in accounting from Northeastern University and a Bachelor of Science in economics from Boston University.

John F. Boyer, Ph.D.

President, MAXIMUS Federal Services, Inc.

John F. Boyer is President of MAXIMUS Federal Services. Dr. Boyer joined MAXIMUS in 1995 bringing more than 30 years of experience in health care delivery including clinical, administrative and managed care services to MAXIMUS. Boyer led the Company's Health Services efforts from September 1998 through October 2005 and was responsible for helping clients shape and define their Medicaid Managed Care programs. Prior to joining MAXIMUS, Dr. Boyer was Director, Health Services Financing Policy in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Health Affairs) at the Pentagon. He holds a Ph.D. in public administration/public policy analysis from The American University, a Master of Science in management from the Naval Postgraduate School, a Master of Science in nursing from New York Medical College and a Bachelor of Science in education (mathematics) from Illinois State University.

David Richardson

President, Federal Operations

With over 30 years of experience in health insurance and health care, Mr. Richardson has specific expertise in health care policy, health care rate setting and reimbursement, health management information systems analysis and design, medical management and federal contract administration. David Richardson joined MAXIMUS in 1984 and founded the Center for Health Dispute Resolution, which has provided the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) with Medicare Advantage appeals since 1989. Mr. Richardson has worked directly with CMS on several projects, including the Medicare Drug Card Reconsideration Project, Qualified Independent Contractor, and support to the CMS Medicare Appeal System development effort. Mr. Richardson holds a Bachelor of Arts in psychology and philosophy from Boston College.

Bruce L. Caswell

President, Health Services Segment

Bruce Caswell joined MAXIMUS in 2004 and currently serves as the President of the Health Services Segment. Mr. Caswell has more than 15 years of experience providing consulting, systems integration and program operations services primarily to public sector clients at all levels with a focus on health and human services operations. Previously, Mr. Caswell served as Vice President, State and Local Government & Education Industries for IBM Business Consulting Services (BCS). During his tenure at IBM, Mr. Caswell also served as Director of Federal Sales (BCS) and led sales and business development teams in IBM's marketing and software organizations nationally and globally. Prior to IBM, Mr. Caswell served five years with Price Waterhouse LLP, Office of Government Services, in Washington, D.C., culminating as a Manager in the firm's Policy Research and Analysis practice unit. Mr. Caswell holds a Master of Public Policy from the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University and a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Haverford College.

Deanne Wertin

President, Consulting Segment

Deanne Wertin assumed the role of Consulting Segment President in July 2008. Ms. Wertin served as President of the Company's Western Region Health Services operations since 2006, where she successfully managed a $125 million portfolio and was instrumental in securing and expanding new work in the Company's core Operations business. Previously a Managing Director with BearingPoint, she designed and launched a thriving regional consulting practice serving several health insurance plans with a focus on strategy, business process improvement and technology services. Ms. Wertin holds a Bachelor of Science in biology from the University of Virginia and a Master of Business Administration from the University of California, Davis.

David Casey

Senior Vice President, Government Relations and Business Development

David Casey serves as the Senior Vice President of Government Relations and Business Development, drawing upon his decades-long experience in supporting the operations of government health and humans services programs. Mr. Casey joined MAXIMUS in 1994 and has served in various senior management roles. Prior to joining MAXIMUS, Mr. Casey served as the Government and Education Account Executive for Wang Laboratories. Mr. Casey holds a Bachelor of Science in engineering and computer science from Northeastern University.

Brian Cresta

Vice President, Health and Human Services, Federal Operations

Brian Cresta serves as the Vice President of Health and Human Services for MAXIMUS Federal Services. As a former Regional Director for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and a former Massachusetts State Representative, Mr. Cresta possesses a strong understanding of local, state and federal governments, with a focus on health and human service policy and programs. His background includes technical knowledge of policy and program analysis/assessment, evaluation design, performance measurement and technical assistance. Mr. Cresta holds a bachelor of science in management and marketing from Merrimack College.

To learn more, please contact us at 1-800-MAXIMUS or at info@maximusforhealth.com or visit www.maximusforhealth.com.

11419 Sunset Hills Road
Reston, Virginia 20190
1.800.MAXIMUS
www.maximus.com